

Success Stories of National Lok Adalat
dated 12-12-2020

Bunch of 24 Motor Accident Claims were settled through Compromise

In the year 2013, a marriage procession was going in a bus and stuck to LT line that resulted into loss of 9 lives including death of 2 children and grievous injury to 15 persons. 24 cases of contributory negligence against Electricity Dept. and Driver were filed wherein Electricity Dept. had paid compensation of Rs. 5,00,000 in death cases and 15,000 to every injured person but claims against insurance company were pending since 7 years before MACT, Churu.

These matters were identified by DLSA, Churu fit for compromise. Consistently, all efforts were made by way of structured formula and finally parties agreed to come into compromise. Through Lok Adalat 24 aforesaid cases were settled through compromise and Award of Rs. 48 lakh were passed in favour of claimants.

W and H were reunited

District – Jhalawar

A lady 'W' got married with 'H' resident of District Jhalawar and both of them started living together. After few days of marriage, W was subject to humiliation and torture for dowry by her in-laws. She repeatedly reported her husband about ill treatment by her in-laws but her husband did not utter even a single word against his family. W did everything to keep working her wedlock but all gone vein. Lastly, W left her in-laws house and moved to her parental home and filed a case of Divorce. The case was kept before Lok Adalat Bench, Family Court, Jhalawar, wherein essence of reunion were found. Couple were counselled by the Chairman Lok Adalat and misunderstanding was cleanse and both W and H shown their desire to live together again.

Couple reunited after 6 years of separation

District – Jodhpur

Resident of Jodhpur, X and Y got married in the year 2014 and started their matrimonial life but soon after 4 months of wedlock, petty family issues and arguments separated them and resulted into their separation for 6 years. Case and cross case of dowry, breach of trust feathered with domestic violence and Divorce were filed by both the parties. Meanwhile, a girl child out of the wedlock took birth but the Y challenged her legitimacy and asked for DNA test. The matter was placed before the Bench of Lok Adalat Family Court, Jodhpur wherein all efforts were made to reunite the family again. With constant efforts of counselling parties agreed to live together and withdrawn their Divorce Petition. Thereby, Lok Adalat reunite the broken family.