Internship Programmes for Students of Law Colleges under RLSA

Rajasthan State Legal Services Authority conducts Internship programme for the Students of Law colleges and a number of request applications are received from Law students, across the country.

To provide maximum benefit to Internship aspirants a period has been fixed for internship in every year. It is from 15th April to 15th July for Summer Internship and from 12th November to 12th February for Winter Internship. This period is divided into batches of three weeks (21 Days). Day to day schedule of Internship programme is also prepared and uploaded on website rslsaip@gmail.com with a view to give comprehensive idea of the working of Legal Services Institutions and the legal services programme with a specific focus.

Therefore it is requested to all students who wish to undergo Internship with Rajasthan State Legal Services Authority to apply for summer and winter internship programme at least before 15 days in advance, to the period specified for the summer and winter internship as mentioned above.
